

A History of Greatgrand Father William Giles. Bricklayer.

B-12-31-1796 Loudon

The family moved from Culverton to Strelly, Eng, May 11, 1833. They Eng

lived here seven years. , then moved to Broxholm, Lincolnshire Eng.

June 6, 1844. On dec 22, 1849 Grandmother and her son Thomas H. went to B-4-13-1880-East-Budapest-Eng. visit his wifes sister, a Mrs Goodwin, who was a Mormon. Both were very impressed by the visit and attended church with the Goodwins. . This was what Grandmother had been searching for. On Dec. 23, they were baptized by Elder Beecroft. In 1850 Elder Joseph E. Taylor came as a missionary from Salt Lake City Utah.. After hearing his message, Grandfather was baptized Sept. 2, 1850 by Elder Taylor. The rest of the family were baptized the fallowing year. They left Liverpool Eng. Mar. 2, 1854 for America. They sailed on the ship OLD ENGLAND. The voige took 24 days. They went to Council Bluffs Iowa, and remained there for some time. While there they met John Croock. The Giles family decided to journey to Utah in 1856. John Crook asked if he might come with them, as he had become very interested in their daughter Mary. He sold out his holdings and came with them. Elder Cunningham of Salt Lake was in charge of church affairs in Council Bluffs at that time.

Mr. Crook and the Giles family gathered at a city called Hanghallow across the Missouri river . Four wagons of them left for Florence Neb. on June 2 1856 The company concisted of 50 wagons, devived in 10 companies. The Giles and Crook were in E. B. Tripp company. Their first view of the Salt Lake Aug. valley was from the top of BIG MOUNTAIN. On Oct. 14, 1856 they moved into a little valley between big and little mountain, at the head of Parleys canyon

Later moving into Emigration canyon.. On Aug. 15 they moved on into the valle

On Aug. 19 four teams of the groupjournied on to the south near the Jordon

River(Camp Williams) then on into Provo Valley. The journey had proved too much for Grandmother Sarah.H. and she died Sept. 5 1857. Grandfather Giles married his second wife Mary W. Day Nov. 12, 1859. in the Endowment House.

They made their home in Provo Utah. John Crook and Mary Giles were married shortly upon arriving in Provo. In the summer of 1858 a wagon road was made up through Provo canyon, surveyed by J.C. Snow. and on Apr. 30 1859 the fallowing brouthern started for Heber Valley. William Meeks was presiding

Elder. Thomas Rasband, John Crook, Charles N. Carroll, John and James Carlile

John Jordon, Jesse Bond, William Giles and William Carpenter. They started out

with three teams, plows grain provisions and etc.. By nightfall they reached a snow slide in the canyon just below south fork. So they made camp, and next morning took the wagons apart and carried them and the provisions over on the backs of the oxen and cattle. By the next night they had reached the ranch of William ^{Madison} Wall near (now Wallsburg). The 1st day of May they moved on around the base of the hill to Daniel creek. Then on to the proposed site of Heber. Looking north they saw two black objects, later found to be William Davis ^{son} and his son plowing, with a yoke of oxen. Robert Broadhead and James Davis also, with two yoke of oxen. The Davis and Broadheads were camped at a place called London Spring, one and a half miles north of Heber. On May 5th they started plowing. Thomas Rasband and John Crook worked the same team. James and John Carlile had two pair of cattle. It was a cold late spring, this first one in the valley.

William and Sarah Huskinson Giles were the parents of 10 sons and daughters;

Thomas H.	Married	Elizabeth Moore
George		Mary Greenwood
Elizabeth		Thomas Rasband
Ann	Died at the age of seven.
John		Sarah Elizabeth Giles
Mary		John Crook
Fredrick		Mary ann Moulton
✓ Emily Ann		James Carlile
Kaziah		Charles N. Carroll
Willliam		Christina Carlile

William Giles died Dec. 15, 1874 Heber.

Sarah Huskinson Giles died Sept. 5, 1857 Provo.

A History of Greatgrand Father William Giles. Bricklayer.

B-12-31-179b Loudon

The family moved from Culverton to Strelly, Eng, May 11, 1833. They Eng

lived here seven years., then moved to Broxholm, Lincolnshire Eng.

June 6, 1844. On dec 22, 1849 Grandmother and her son Thomas H. went to visit his wifes sister, a Mrs Goodwin, who was a Mormon. Both were very impressed by the visit and attended church with the Goodwins. . This was what Grandmother had been searching for. On Dec. 23, they were baptized by Elder Beecroft. In 1850 Elder Joseph E. Taylor came as a missionary from Salt Lake City Utah.. After hearing his message, Grandfather was baptized Sept. 2, 1850 by Elder Taylor. The rest of the family were baptized the fallowing year. They left Liverpool Eng. Mar. 2, 1854 for America. They sailed on the ship OLD ENGLAND. The voige took 24 days. They went to Council Bluffs Iowa, and remained there for some time. While there they met John Croock. The Giles family decided to journey to Utah in 1856. John Crook asked if he might come with them, as he had become very interested in their daughter Mary. He sold out his Holdings and came with them. Elder Cunningham of Salt Lake was in charge of church affairs in Council Bluffs at that time.

Mr. Crook and the Giles family gathered at a city called Hanghallow across the Missouri river . Four wagons of them left for Florence Neb. on June 2 1856 The company concisted of 50 wagons, devived in 10 companies. The Giles and Crook were in E. B. Tripp company. Their first view of the Salt Lake valley was from the top of BIG MOUNTAIN. On Oct. 14, 1856 they moved into a little valley between big and little mountain, at the head of Parleys canyon Later moving into Emigration canyon.. On Aug. 15 they moved on into the valley

On Aug. 19 four teams of the group journied on to the south near the Jordon
River(Camp Williams) then on into Provo Valley. The journey had proved too much for Grandmother Sarah H. and she died Sept. 5 1857. Grandfather Giles married his second wife Mary W. Day Nov. 12, 1859. in the Endowment House.
They made their home in Provo Utah. John Crook and Mary Giles were married shortly upon arriving in Provo. In the summer of 1858 a wagon road was made up through Provo canyon, surveyed by J.C. Snow. and on Apr. 30 1859 the fallowing brouthern started for Heber Valley. William Meeks was presiding
Elder. Thomas Rasband, John Crook, Charles N. Carroll, John and James Carlile
John Jordon, Jesse Bond, William Giles and William Carpenter. They started out
with three teams, plows grain provisions and etc.. By nightfall they reached a snow slide in the canyon just below south fork. So they made camp, and next morning took the wagons apart and carried them and the provisions over on
the backs of the oxen and cattle. By the next night they had reached the ranch of William N. Wall near (now Wallsburg). The 1st day of May they moved on around the base of the hill to Daniel creek. Then on to the proposed site of Heber. Looking north they saw two black objects, later found to be William Davis and his son plowing, with a yoke of oxen. Robert Broadhead and James Davis also, with two yoke of oxen. The Davis and Broadheads were camped at a place called London Spring, one and a half miles north of Heber. On May 5th they started plowing. Thomas Rasband and John Crook worked the same team. James and John Carlile had two pair of cattle. It was a cold late spring, this first one in the valley.

William and Sarah Huskinson Giles were the parents of 10 sons and daughters;

Thomas H.	Married	Elizabeth Moore
George		Mary Greenwood
Elizabeth		Thomas Rasband
Ann	Died at the age of seven.
John		Sarah Elizabeth Giles
Mary		John Crook
Fredrick		Mary ann Moulton
Emily Ann		James Carlile
Kaziah		Charles N. Carroll
Willliam		Christina Carlile

William Giles died Dec. 15, 1874 Heber.

Sarah Huskinson Giles died Sept. 5, 1857 Provo.